HUSBAND MINDED THE BABIES -Justice Sauber's peacemaking proclivities were brought into play again yesterday when he sought to bring peace and harmony to the household of Edward D. Sadier, which had been destroyed, according to Sadler's statement, by Mrs. Sadler's fondness for attending lodge meetings, on which occasion be

was left at home to mind the children. Mrs. Sadler had her spouse arrested on the charge of beating her on the night of July 2 when she went home from her lodge He denied the charge and said be merely caught her by the wrist, which he did not think was much of a punishment for her considering that she spent her evenings at lodge meetings, leaving him to keep house and mind the children. He claimed, moreover, hat she was in the habit of returning home about 2 o'clock in the morning, which greatly disturbed his slumber and made him lose his temper.

Mrs. Sadier admitted that she had a:tended a lodge meeting of the Foresters of America at Red Men's Hall. She said that the meeting lasted until after 11:30 p. m. because some other society took the hall by mistake and held it until 10 p. m. Sh was thereby detained nearly two hours, but she arrived home she said, about 12 o'clock, and not 2 s. m. as he claimed. When she rang her doorbell she says, her husband became angry and would not let her in. Sae had no latchkey and was forced to sleep at the house of a friend. After that night, she said, she discontinued her attendance upon lodge meetings, but that did not make her husband more amisble. and he frequently hit her win hais fist.
"You seem to be a Twentieth century woman, Mrs. Sadler," said the Justice, but I am afraid you are a little ahead of time." He then said that he did not think the charges against Sadler were sustained and dismissed him, at the same time advising him to make up with his wife and let her go to her lodge meetings as often as she liked,-[Balti-

MASON AND DIXON LINE.-It is stated in Science that Prof. W. H. Clark has been appointed by the governor of Maryland commissioner on be half of the State of Maryland to act with a similar commissioner on behalf of the State of Pennsylvania, and the superiatendent of the United States Coast and Geodetic Survey, in the re-establishment of the historic Mason and Dixon line, in part forming the bound-ary between Maryland and Delaware. This famous line, so long re-garded as the boundary between the North and South, was run by two English surveyors—Mason and Dxon—between the years 1764-68, and was marked throughout the eastern portion by granite monuments brought from England, that had cut on their southern faces the arms of Lord Balti-more, and on the north the arms of the Penns. It was by far the most extensive engineeering work of colonial days. The old line is very obscure because of the destruction of many of the monumente, and property interests are suff ering as the result. It is the purpose of the new survey to redetermine and properly mark the old line.
